Hot Club: Jazz Listening Session

What is a Hot Club? Starting in the 1930's, "Hot Clubs" were a sort of "Book Club" for jazz listening - fans would get together to play records for each other. Today, the Neo Hot Club movement is about hearing classic and rare jazz records on their original 78RPM format, which offers the best sound possible. A community of jazz lovers is growing around these "Neo Hot Clubs," keeping alive the love of old recordings and swinging hot jazz. This session is led by esteemed jazz researcher and historian Ben Young.

FREE (No RSVP required)

FRI | SEPT 27 | 8 PM

New York Classical Players: Beethoven & Bartok

New York Classical Players premieres Samuel Adler's new orchestration of Jupiter from Holst's iconic work, The Planet. Pianist Haesun Paik, violinist Josef Spacek, and cellist Michael Katz perform a Triple Concerto to celebrate Beethoven's 250th birth year. Bartok's Divertimento will close the program, a work beloved for its high drama and thrilling scope of the folk music of which the composer was deeply enamored.
